VERNON S. BRODERICK, United States District Judge:

In light of the representations made at the January 27, 2021 status conference in the above-captioned case, it is hereby:

ORDERED that each party shall submit a letter on or before February 3, 2021. The letters should address, at minimum, the following issues: 1) the harm, if any, to Defendant in maintaining the status quo, 2) the harm, if any, to Plaintiff in the event that Defendant operates the route until the estate process is complete, 3) the provisions of the distributor agreement between Defendant and Plaintiff that each party is relying on for their legal position regarding Defendant's ability to temporarily operate the route, and 4) whether or not I have jurisdiction to grant any relief on this issue. Defendant's letter should also address how Defendant has dealt with similar situations in the past, or whether this is a unique situation. The parties are expected to have met and conferred before submitting their letters, and to the extent appropriate, the letters should respond to the other parties' positions.
